Ted, the NCDs Political Declaration was adopted at the High Level Meeting on September 27. There is no further UNGA action.

The attached is the final as I understand it.

Thanks and regards, Ann

Hi Ann and Sofijia,
Do either of you have a copy of the final agreed text for the subject Political Declaration you could send along? I understand that this text will still need to receive its final adoption by UNGA. Do you know when that is likely to occur?
Thanks,
Ted

Hi Ted, thanks.

I am copying Sofia, who has assumed Laurie's position on her departure. Laurie retired at the end of August!

Thanks for reaching out. Ann

Hi Ann,

I tried to forward to Laurie Phipps at USUN an invitation I received from WHO to attend a "preview of the new NCDs "Saving lives, spending less" web portal" up in NYC on Sept. 26 (see email at the bottom).

Two attempts to send resulted in both emails getting bounced back as undeliverable. Do you know if Laurie has left State Department, and if so, do you know who will be covering the 3rd High Level Meeting on NCDs?

Is there someone else at USUN who you think might be interested in the WHO event?

Regards,

Ted

Hi Laurie,

I just received the invite below from WHO to attend a "preview of the new NCDs "Saving lives, spending less" web portal" up in NYC on Sept. 26. I suspect you are already aware the event, and have received an invite. But just in case you have not, I thought I would pass this along in case you might be interested, as it indicates the invite is transferrable. I will not be attending.

I look forward to seeing the release of the outcome document from the 3rd High Level Meeting (HLM) on NCDs on Sept. 27, and thank you again for your efforts in getting reference to air pollution as a major NCD incorporated. I was pleased to see that the brochure for the HLM includes air pollution alongside the four other main NCD risk factors. Reinforcing the merits of including air pollution to the list, you might be interested in seeing new "Global estimates of mortality associated with long-term exposure to outdoor fine particulate matter" (<https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/30181279>).
